

Due to venue pre bookings the two day winter show this year took place on the Friday 17th February (Half Term) and Sunday 18th February at Stretcholt Arena.

On the worker day, the first class of the day was won by area member Harriet Thomas on the Somerset bred Annandale Captain Splash. The 13hh Grey Section B by Soudley Talisman won the Novice Nursery Stakes and the Open Nursery Stakes and culminated in them being Mini WHP Champions.

Low entries meant the next class was the Novice 153cm WHP which was won by Streamways Mexicana, ridden by Chantel Thackery. The smart bay 14.2hh is a Ramexico son out of a Welsh Part Bred mare. They went onto be Reserve Novice WHP Champion.

The Championship went to the dark bay 6yr old gelding Intermediate Novice WH Noble Checkmate and Alexia Trodd Bohin. A good start for the 16 year old and her new ride.

The Open WHP's saw a lot more entries. The Open 143cm saw the coloured Wiscombe Bunny and Megan Breston take top place. Next up was the Open 153cm WHP the largest contended Plaited WHP class of the day. The top place was taken by the Part Bred Connemara Holnest Finnigan which is owner bred and ridden by breeder's daughter Boo Walters. The Sire is Irish Sports Horse McGuigan and dam homebred Holnest Ceannabhan. The bay gelding went on to take Champion Open WHP with Reserve going to the Intermediate WH Noble Checkmate and Alexia Trodd Bohin.

Moving back down the heights, back into Novices – the 122cm Novice M&M WHP. This again was won by Harriet Thomas and her mother's Sarum Phoenix. The little grey superstar and Harriet have a great partnership and he proved his consistency by winning again.

Moving up and in their first proper season of WHP was Brookhall Royal Mint and Gemma Wyman. Gemma who brought the 7 year old 13hh Liver Chestnut Welsh Section B Gelding from Fayre Oaks as a foal they have been enjoying the flat classes over the last 2yrs. However this year sees them progress into workers.

Overall Novice M&M Champion went to the Palomino Section C Peasedown Maddison, known as Pinky at home. He is a 6 years old Welsh C gelding, bred and owned by Caroline Sutton. He is out of Peasedown Mischief and by Peasedown Ronnie. Jessica had him as a late 3 year old to break and then showed him lightly as a 4 year old in flat classes and novice workers. He then had the winter off and came back to Jessica at the beginning of the next year successfully doing NPS Dressage Finals, Novice workers and some Hoys workers.

Reserve went to the 14hh dun Connemara who came 2nd to Jessica Pinegrove Classic ridden by Lydia Trice the pair also picked up the 2nd place in the Open M&M WHP. The Winner of the Mixed height Open M&M WHP was Silver Pigeon and Claire Kenworthy.

Sunday was only for the flat classes.

The Intermediate SRT/SH started the day with Lucille Bywater and her new ride for 2017 Absolutely Lovely. A beautiful black novice Show Riding Type which won both the Novice and the Open. Produced by her Auntie Alexandra Fowler of the Broadgrove Stud.

On to the part bred Arab and CHERIF qualifier, where Chloe Little won with Croft Limited Edition and also took the championship above Reserve Dowhills Filly Tilly and J Streeter.

Next in the ring were the minis and to start the day was the good and trustworthy grey Auric Aladdin. A Welsh Section A by Swinford Red Star and bred by Mr Paul Hancox and Miss J.A White of Worcester. Aladdin won Novice and Open Lead Rein of Hunter Type with Madelyn Ellis. Auric Aladdin continued to win in the First Ridden of Hunter Type and take the mini hunter type Champion with Brother Ayden Ellis. Ayden quickly swapped jackets to his blue to win the Open First Ridden Show Pony.

Champion Mini M&M went to the consistent and lovely Welsh Section A Castlemead Andy Pandy who won the Open Lead Rein M&M. Reserve went to the Novice Lead Rein M&M winner which was also 2nd in the Open - Dartmoor gelding Briars Magician and Millie Horn.

Next was the M&M Ridden. The mixed height M&M Ridden was the largest class of the day. This went to the 4 year old Palomino welsh Section C Peasedown Scout and Jessica Talbot. 2nd went to another Welsh Section C Godebog King and another area member Fiona Wilson.

Winner of the Dartmoor, Exmoor and Shetland Ridden went to HOYs qualified 2016 Dartmoor Stallion Greenferns Ben Lomond with 2nd being a new ride for Daisy Conibear Burghwood Shurman a black Shetland.

Welsh C&D Winner and Champion went to Bay Welsh Section D Gelding Cascob Locomotion and his long term owner and rider Jessica Talbot. Continuing her success with her Novice

Fiona Wilson came 2nd in the class but pipped the Dartmoor to become Reserve Champion.

Cascob Locomotion went on to stand overall Supreme Champion. The 8 year old Welsh D Gelding, bred by Mrs S Hamer is owned by Jessica Talbot. He is out of Cascob Gwenllian and by Glanvyrnwy Country Swell. Jessica bought him as a 2 year old from the Brightwells Autumn Welsh cob sales.

Jessica has shown him successfully in flat classes as a 5 and 6 year old. He was placed well in HOYs classes and as a 6 year old he won Devon county and the Royal Windsor horse show that year. A lovely horse all round.

Thank you everyone who came and supported the area and don't forget to book the summer show in your diary.
